GENERAL NUMISMATIC BOOKS

Cooper, Denis R. The Art and Craft of Coinmaking. A History of Minting Technology. 1988. Hardbound. 264 pages, 285 illustrations. An historical account of the tools and machines used to produce coins from the beginning of coinage to the present time. The first seven chapters have information relevant to ancient and medieval numismatics. Winner of the 1989 IAPN Book of the Year. $55.00 (X106)

Cribb, Cook & Carradice. The Coin Atlas. The World of Coinage from its Origins to the Present Day. 1990. Hardbound. 337 pages, over 100 maps and 1100 illustrations (mostly in color). This is the first country-by-country account of world coinage, from its beginnings in the 7th century BC to the present day. For breadth of coverage, this book is undoubtedly the most comprehensive history of coinage worldwide yet published. $39.95 (X103)

Friedberg, Robert. Gold Coins of the World. 1992. Hardbound. 736 pages, over 5000 illustrations throughout, tables of weights and fineness, valuations in two grades. An excellent survey of the gold coins issued throughout the world from ancient times to modern. Unsurpassed in content and scope. Over 15,000 coin types listed. $55.00 (F105)

Hill, George F. Becker the Counterfeiter. 1979 reprint. Hardbound. 111 pages, 19 plates. An important book detailing and illustrating the counterfeit Greek, Roman, Medieval and modern coins of Becker, now collectibles in their own right. Also included is the story of Becker himself. $20.00 (X128)

Hoberman, Gerald. The Art of Coins and Their Photography. 1981. Hardbound. 397 pages, beautifully illustrated throughout. A must for the coin photographer. This book is a unique study of the aesthetic appeal of coins as communicated by photography. The main section of the book transports us through 2500 years of art and history with the finest numismatic photography. The latter part of the book contains the only definitive treatise on numismatic photography, simply explained. OP. $95.00 (X105)

Jacob, Kenneth. Coins and Christianity. 1985. Hardbound. 96 pages, illustrated throughout. A book for the beginning collector. This book lists coins mentioned in the Bible as well as coins that relay Christian themes. $14.00 (X108)

Junge, Ewald. Seaby Coin Encyclopedia. Card cover. 297 pages, illustrated throughout. $34.95 (X157)

Kimball Art Museum. Wealth of the Ancient World. 1983. Cloth. 330 pages, 16 color illustrations, 395 black-and-white illustrations. A catalog for the travelling exhibition of the collections of 16 Greek vases, 38 ancient bronzes and 112 of the best ancient coins belonging to the Hunt brothers. Included are lengthy catalog descriptions with historical backgrounds and interpretations, much of which was not included in the sale catalogs for these items. A beautiful book. Only a few left. $75.00 (X152)

Krause, Chester L. and Clifford Mishler. 1994 Standard Catalog of World Coins. 1993. Soft bound. 2128 pages, illustrated throughout. The most complete listing of world coins from 1801 to the present. $47.95 (F107)

Mackay, James. Coin Facts & Feats. 1993. Card cover. 264 pages, illustrated throughout. Encompassing all aspects of numismatics, ancient, foreign, tokens etc., this book shows vividly the fascination, the romance and the sheer interest of coins including details of mints and moneyers, the production methods of coinage, and the uses to which coins have been put over the centuries. Interesting reading. $34.95 (X155)

Manning, Anne. Valentine Duval: An Autobiography. 1990. Hardbound. 142 pages. The story of the man responsible for the creation of the Austrian numismatic cabinet under Maria Theresa. A light and enjoyable read. $14.00 (X107)

Miller, Michael F. Classical Greek and Roman Coins. The Investors Handbook. 1982. Hardbound. 221 pages, illustrated. Miller explores the fascinating world of classical coins and their impressive investment performance. Much of the price information is outdated, but it does provide the new collector with some insights into the investment side of collecting ancient coins. $15.00 (X104)

Reece, Richard and John Casey. Coins and The Archaeologist. 1988. Hardbound. 192 pages, 8 plates. The original edition was a collection of papers presented at a conference in 1973. This new revised edition incorporates the most recent research on coin finds in Roman Britain. $39.95 (X135)
